The Morris Everett, Jr. Collection

Auction Part I: June 29-30, 2015

54-years ago a young man walks into a movie memorabilia store and decides to collect something on every movie ever made!

No, it's not the setup for a stand-up comedy routine, it's the true story of Morris Everett, Jr., arguably the most deliberate and methodical collector of historic vintage movie posters, lobby cards, photos and other original film publicity material that this specialized hobby has ever seen. The many and varied original vintage display items comprising his collection range from the largest poster size, 24-sheet outdoor “Billboard” all the way down to “Midget Window-Cards” with an emphasis on “Lobby Cards”. Many of these historic titles will be immediately obvious to experienced collectors for rarity, quality and value. This incomparable collection contains near-complete coverage from the beginning of the careers of all the obvious stars. Delving even deeper into the rarest of the rare, perhaps the most essential and unique value of this collection, and absolutely no other known to exist, is its inclusion of virtually every vital and incredibly obscure early appearance for icons like Lon Chaney Sr., Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Buster Keaton, Laurel and Hardy, The Three Stooges with Curly, The Marx Brothers, Rudolph Valentino, Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey plus incredibly important early films by directors like D.W. Griffith, Cecil B. DeMille, Erich von Stroheim, Joseph von Sternberg, John Ford, William Wellman, Howard Hawks, Billy Wilder, Oscar Micheaux, Victor Seastrom, F.W. Murnau, Dorothy Arzner, Lois Weber, Alice Guy Blaché, etc. It is often the case for early “character” appearances of great-stars-to-be that only one (if even that) lobby card from a usual set of eight will include the likes of Chaney, Karloff, Lugosi, Bogart or other such luminaries, and Mr. Everett has gone to enormous lengths to hunt down and acquire those one or two key cards. A great many of these “obscurities” can safely be considered the only known surviving examples, and quite a number of them have passed through a variety of old-school collectors’ hands to make their way into the Everett collection. Every serious dealer and collector going back over 50 years has been aware of Mr. Everett and his stated mission (from the very beginning in 1961) to build the one and only most comprehensive collection possible within his lifetime, and without question he has done exactly that, single-handedly mounting an incomparable historical archive on 107 years of cinema for which no institutional holdings currently compare. The extreme and unique rarity of pieces in the Everett collection cannot be challenged. It is important to note that while Mr. Everett’s collection contains many thousands of items whose condition remains fresh and unabused from decades of storage and potential handling, and that many of the most significant individual items that required cleaning or other professional conservation and refreshing have received it, the majority of items in the collection saw normal use and wear during their service in the trade of motion picture publicity, and should be expected to display a wide range of surviving condition, with the vast majority in normal average used condition, still perfectly displayable, which is the generally accepted standard for this field of historic collecting. These treasures are present in the vault and available at the offices of Profiles in History in Calabasas for viewing by appointment. As extensive as possible an examination and preview is heavily encouraged for any prospective bidders, as the ability of this mere outline of a description offered herein is truly just the tiniest tip of the iceberg when it comes to illustrating the vast unprecedented range, rarity, depth and quality of the Morris Everett, Jr. Collection, without question the world’s greatest and most unique privately-held movie poster collection.
AGREEMENT BETWEEN PROFILES IN HISTORY & BIDDER

Please note that all items in this auction are sold in “as is” condition.

The following terms and conditions (including the Conditions of Sale and Terms of Bidding) have been designed by Profiles in History (the “Bidder”) to protect the interests of Profiles in History and of the Bidder, as well as the interests of any other person or entity to whom Profiles in History may sell, at any time, any or all of the Conditions of Sale, all descriptions of items in the Catalog, and all matters incorporated herein by mutual agreement and/or as fairly bound by Bidder.

Bidder and Profiles agree that any agreements between the Bidder and Profiles including but not limited to these Conditions of Sale are entered into in Los Angeles County, California in a State or Federal Court to the exclusion of any other venue, local or jurisdiction. All parties submit to such jurisdiction. Both Bidder and Profiles agree that these provisions are intended to be self-executing and they shall not be referred to or considered in any case or controversy where Bidder or Profiles are parties. Any violation of the terms of this Paragraph shall entitle the affected party to reasonable attorney fees and litigation costs in addition to all other available remedies, all of which remain reserved. The parties agree that Profiles shall be entitled to present these Conditions of Sale to a court in any jurisdiction other than this paragraph as a condition precedent to evidence that Bidder or Profiles has, in any manner, procured Bidder or Profiles to comply with any other jurisdiction or law otherwise hereunder.

Profiles is in compliance, to the fullest extent possible, with California procedures regarding the bonding of auctioneers.

1. Final Bid Price, Purchase Price and Payment. The term, “Final Bid Price,” means the final price listed in the catalog, including all applicable taxes, fees, and/or charges due Profiles for the item(s) sold, which has been confirmed by Profiles and is payable to Profiles. The term, “Purchase Price” means the sum of (1) the Final Bid Price; (2) a premium payable by the successful Bidder (also referred to throughout these Conditions of Sale as “Buyer”) equal to twenty-four percent (24%) of the Final Bid Price (discounted to twenty percent (20%) of the Final Bid Price if paid in full in cash or by valid check); or twenty-eight percent (28%) if bid on and won through internet bidding; (3) applicable taxes (including California and local sales tax and/or compensating use tax based upon the purchase price unless exempted by law and/or where Buyer presents an original, valid resale certificate or otherwise qualifies for exemption by law); (4) shipping, handling and insurance costs, if any; (5) acceptance fees as may be assessed by Profiles if Buyer acquires an item on deposit, purchase agreement, or by purchase with agreement and (6) applicable closing costs or fees as agreed by Buyer and Profiles. On the fall of the auctioneer’s hammer, title to the offered lot shall pass to the successful bidder. Where such lot is subject to a reserve, the reserve shall pass to the highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer but fully and absolutely subject to all of the Conditions of Sale and the Registration Form.

2. Title. On the fall of the auctioneer’s hammer, title to the offered lot will pass to the highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer but subject to Buyer’s credit or consignment of the property (“Consignor”) and on its own behalf. Profiles in History does not make any representation or warranty as to the authenticity, importance, exhibition, and relevance, used in the catalog, bill of sale, and other descriptions, or the authenticity, importance, exhibition, and relevance of any other information, description or terminology including but not limited to words describing condition or body. 4. Consequences. Profiles shall determine opening bids and bidding increments. The auctioneer has the right in its absolute discretion to record any bid that the auctioneer deems to be in error, to record any bid as the high bid if the auctioneer determines that there is no high bid, or to accept a bid as the high bid. Profiles shall determine in its absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder in the event of any two or more equal bids and/or to resell the lot in question. In the event of a dispute after the sale, Profiles’ record of final sale shall be conclusive. The auctioneer also may open the bidding on any lot at any price, which may or may not be the reserve price and shall declare the highest bid acknowledged by the auctioneer as the successful bid even if that any opening bid is below the reserve (see paragraph 5 below) of the lot or article that an advance is insufficient. Unless otherwise noted in the catalog, the reserve, if any, of any lot shall be kept secret at the time of the sale, no lots may be divided for the purpose of sale.

5. Reserves. Lots may be subject to a reserve, which is the confidential minimum price below which the lot will not be sold. Although the auctioneer shall endeavor to conduct the auction as nearly as possible in accordance with the reserve, the reserve is not binding on Profiles, the successful Bidder, nor the consignor. Buyer shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.) as adopted by the state of California, and Buyer is subject to all rights of Profiles, to charge from and collect all amounts due hereunder. 10. Terms of Guarantee. Profiles does not provide any guarantee or warranty to Bidders or Buyers, whether express or implied, beyond those expressly provided for in these Conditions of Sale. Profiles specifically disclaims all other warranties, both express and implied. As set forth below and elsewhere in these Conditions of Sale, Profiles guarantees the authenticity, origin, period, and culture of each lot in this catalogue with the catalogue prepared by a Bold or Capitalized type heading, or as revised or amended by announcement before or during the auction. Except for the Bold and Capitalized headings and any other statements or assertions contained in whatsoever, whether express or implied or by operation of law, with respect to any lots offered or any other material in the catalogue. In the event Profiles fails to meet this representation, Profiles guarantees that the full price paid by the Bidder for the lot shall be refunded. 1. Cabiria original half-sheet poster. (Itala Film, 1914) Original 28 x 22 in. half-sheet poster for Cabiria. Not only the first true epic feature film, this is quite likely the first feature-length horror film as well, in its depiction of sacrifices to the god “Moloch”. This is one of the only known original release American pieces for this milestone film. Never folded, with occasional pinholes, in fine to very fine condition. $1,500 - $2,500

2. Maciste in Hell (2) lobby cards, including title-lobby card. (Capital Films, 1925) Color lobby cards for Maciste in Hell, including title-lobby card. One of many Italian sequels to the 1914 Cabiria, this one with a much more specific horror theme, including demons from hell torturing topless women. Both cards exhibit some border trimming, though they retain all of the printed areas. In good condition. $600 - $800

3. The Pit and the Pendulum (2) lobby cards. (Solax Films, 1913) Sepia (2) lobby cards for The Pit and the Pendulum. (1) Card is a vertical format depicting a hooded headman and (1) card depicting various torture devices. Not only one of the earliest horror films, but certainly one of the earliest from an Edgar Allen Poe source, as well as being directed by one of the earliest female directors, Alice Guy Blaché. Fairly significant corner loss, though otherwise in very good condition. $400 - $600
4. Undine (7) Vertical Lobby Cards for the First Known Mermaid Fantasy Film. (Bluebird Photoplays, 1913) Beautifully hand-tinted (7) color vertical lobby cards for Undine. Extraordinary early rarity, including a number of revealing mermaid images. In very good condition. $600 - $800

5. Director Willis O’Brien Lobby Card for The Ghost of Slumber Mountain. (Herbert M. Dawley Prod., 1918) Sepia lobby card for the pioneering stop-motion animated short The Ghost of Slumber Mountain. Extraordinarily rare example of the seminal work of animator Willis O’Brien, which makes possible King Kong, fifteen years later. Though a few poster-sized pieces for this early groundbreaking special effects film have surfaced over the years, this is believed to be the only lobby card, and certainly the only lobby card with a dinosaur, in existence. Marginal pinholes. Entirely unrestored. In very good to fine condition. $2,000 - $3,000
6. Paul Wegener lobby card for The Golem. (Projektions-AG Union, 1920) Sepia lobby card for actor and co-director Paul Wegener from The Golem. One of very few monster cards ever to surface for this important early film filled with Jewish lore and mythology. Virtually unhandled, in very fine condition. $4,000 - $6,000

7. Conrad Veidt lobby card for The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari. (Decla-bioscop, 1920) Sepia lobby card for Conrad Veidt in The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari. One of the best cards in the set in its depiction of extreme expressionist sets and Conrad Veidt’s horrific somnambulist “Cesare” as he carries off “Jane” (Lil Dagover). This particular card was also once the property of pioneering film historian James Card. Beautiful restoration, which may include one or more border replacements. One of only a handful of such cards in existence. Card now presents as fine. $4,000 - $6,000
8. John Barrymore lobby card for Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. (Famous Players-Lasky, 1920) Sepia lobby card for John Barrymore in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. An extremely scarce early horror title. Separating vertical center crease. Otherwise, in very good condition. $1,000 – $1,500

9. Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde lobby card. (Mayer, 1920) Hand-tinted color lobby card for Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Perhaps the least known and most rare of the versions of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, and the only card from it that we’re aware of coming to market. In good to very good condition. $400 – $600

10. A Message From Mars (3) lobby cards. (Metro, 1921) Hand-tinted color (3) lobby cards for a virtually unknown and presumed lost early Sci-Fi film; A Message From Mars. (1) card features an exotic phantom Martian and (1) unimportant scene card has top and bottom margins trimmed. Other cards remain in fine condition. $400 – $600

11. The Mistress of the World (4) lobby cards. (UFA, 1919) Color (4) lobby cards for Mistress of the World. Joe May’s unique Sci-Fi/Fantasy adventure serial was composed of four feature-length episodes, of which (3) are represented here. In very good to fine condition. $400 – $600

13. Director Maurice Tournier (6) lobby cards for The Brass Bottle, including title-lobby card. (First National, 1923) Hand-tinted color (6) lobby cards for Maurice Tournier’s The Brass Bottle, including title-lobby card. (5) beautifully hand-tinted cards and (1) gold-toned special card. Unusual early fantasy film directed by Maurice Tournier. Gold card has vertical center crease. Others are fine to very fine. $600 - $800

14. Quo Vadis title-lobby card. (National Pictures, 1924) Hand-tinted color title-lobby card for Quo Vadis. Spectacular special effects in this silent Italian epic earned this an entry in the Horror and Fantasy genre. In very fine condition. $800 - $1,200

15. The Wizard of Oz lobby card. (Chadwick Pictures, 1925) Hand-tinted color lobby card for The Wizard of Oz. Directed by legendary silent comedian, Larry Semon, pictured twice here as “The Scarecrow” along with Oliver Hardy as “The Tin Man” with other cast. One of the only existing original release pieces for this first feature from The Wizard of Oz books. Paper-backed to correct vertical center crease. Now presents as very fine. $3,000 - $5,000
16. She title-lobby card. (RKO, 1925) Color title-lobby card for She. In very fine condition. $600 - $800

17. She (2) lobby cards. (RKO, 1925) Color (2) lobby cards for She. In very fine condition. $600 - $800
